

Hey everyone...Well lets start with the bad news...Lancer is getting a divorce...

Now that that is done, I am here listening to Journey's "Don't stop believing" which is kind of a theme song right now for me. I am just trying to live 1 day at a time, which is hard for a guy like me who always want "to look away, to the future. Not looking at where he is...what he is doing" (If you don't know who said that then you deserve a smack w/ a wet noodle) Oh and I got a new computer so I want to do these things more often now, and I want to do a webcast since this thing has a webcam on it.

Ok now for the RT stuff...Its now the end of summer and so far Kevin & Co. have not really come out w/ anything new w/ RLAM. I guess no news is good news but you know when we heard about Iron Man a lot of ppl were skeptical and we didnt hear a lot about that. (Hey my Itunes is now playing the Theme of RT) Yes I know random...Anyways I know all of us is looking forward to this movie and I just hope that Kevin and Tommy (bcuz I asked them both) will let the director or ask the director to let me host a behind the scenes look at RLAM. For just a uber geek in RT that would be sooo COOL!!!!

Anyways lets hope the next news we get will be something about a director.

Oh on a personal note, Memo's son will be surgery next month, so if you could say a prayer, or something spiritual or just give best wishes to Memo that would be cool...Hey Memo, give your son a fist pump from Lancer buddy!

Lancer Out!
