

I've decided to continue using this blog, but it will be our little secret okay? Hopefully this will make someone happy..... looks around These blogs aren't even that noticeable on the front page, even more so most of the attention goes to the forum and the current drama. yadda yadda, shall I continue?

Well within the past four or five months, I forget which... the Atlantech website has gotten its own domain name, a nice and neat revamping, along with other thingamajiggers I added. let's see, ah yes there are lots of new chapters too, forget where I last left off, when I was posting them on the forum.

ah well here are the latest

Chapter 14: Evanesce

Chapter 15: The Interlopers

Chapter 16: Card Shark

They've all be converted into html file types so I'd have more room on the site, but unfortunately during this process I lost a lot of the formatting especially the italics curses

Chapter 17 is in the works, and should be completed and posted by the end of November, or Early December.

Here's the latest in the web comic pages

9 is in the works, and I hope to have it done by Early December.

Here's some of the latest artwork I've finished

Portraiture - vintage looking painting of Victoria Thompson

Also, currently I am doing a chapter analysis on the story, and have already done chapter 1 while working on 2 and so on. This will give anyone who hasn't read a kind of a heads up on what happened and whatnot. That thread can viewed here note most of this content I am sharing with you minus the written chapters, will be published in book form and available online via amazon & Barnes & Noble sometime later next year. It will be the first book project I put together myself, so there's going to be lots of work to do. If it gets done in time before comic con 2010, I might have it available there just will have to work out some kind of deal, but that's a definite "if" right now.

Hope you enjoyed this update, and I will continue to use this blog from now on
