Well, here's the updates for this month can't make this too long since I've got work in 20 mins heh anyways

Two new comic pages!

Phonus Balonus

Milquetoast

I expect to have page 11 done shortly no more two month gaps between updates.. that was brutal!

I've been busy so havent finished a lot of my planned works of art, but here is one that I did finish

"Those Eyes" - Victoria's Bio page illustration for the book project lots of character paintings like this one to do! "warning" image is VERY large and highly detailed!

The site gallery was also recently updated and I added a section for WIP's and sketches, along with a scraps section for those works of art that just didn't work for me, in other words.. the rejects!

well that's all I have to update with right now... more stuff to come!
just need more free time heh
