

This is a great idea for a website! Where fans can interact and have their own weblogs and everything.

Ahem, moving on, I figured I'd join up so I could post about my Macross Sage fanfic - Choices and Aces

. I've been posting it on Fanfiction.net, but I've wanting to post it a few other places and find out what other people think of it.

Anywho, that's all for my first entry fun.
